Bid1.

Property Summary

- Freehold residential investment
- Large corner building
- Includes three flats and six letting rooms (HMO)
- Popular south west London suburb
- Producing £103,200 per annum
- On the instructions of James Liddiment and Paul Greenhalgh of Duff and Phelps acting as Joint Fixed Charge Receivers

Location

Balham is a popular suburb of south west London lying about 4 miles south west of Central London. It is accessed via the A24, of which Balham High Road forms part and lies just to the south of Clapham Common. The area is well served by numerous bus routes as well as underground and overland rail services from nearby Balham and Wandsworth Common railway/underground stations and Clapham South underground station, all of which are within a few minutes' walk of the property.

The property commands a prominent position at the junction of Oldridge Road and Pickets Street in a mainly residential location. The shopping amenities of Balham High Road are close providing numerous shops, bars and restaurants including Waitrose and Nandos.

Description

A prominent corner building of traditional construction beneath a pitched roof. The building is arranged as three self contained flats (27/27a Oldridge Road and 1a Pickets Street) and an HMO providing six letting rooms (1 Pickets Street). Externally there is a small rear courtyard and an off-street parking area to the front corner and the side.
